3. Can I change or cancel an order after it's been placed?

Please contact the LCBO at groceryandconvenience@lcbo.com for all order modifications or cancellations.

4. Is there a minimum order requirement?

Yes – there is a minimum order (MOQ) requirement for Beer delivery. The MOQ for delivery is defined as equivalent of 48, 24 format pack size per customer PO. This measure is based on total individual units making a total sum of this threshold value. Example, 48 cases of 24 format = 1,152 individual units, or 30 cases of 24 formats + 36 cases of 12 formats = 1,152 individual units.

Any order below the MOQ will automatically be converted to a pickup order (unless you are a chain store who is setup for delivery only, your order will be canceled if below MOQ) which is to be collected from your designated Beer Store location within 48 hours of order placement. Your designated store will appear on your order confirmation that will be emailed to you upon receipt of order by TBS.

The minimum order calculation is completed and determined on order receipt by TBS and not on confirmed delivery quantity.

The chart below has 3 example orders to illustrate.
